

1876 Centennial Exposition

Award winners – Beer

Philadelphia, PA

1583. Bergner & Engel, Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness, nearly so in taste, and excellent in flavor.

1584. Valentine Blatz, Milwaukee, Wis., U. S. LAGER BEER.
Commended for perfect brightness and taste, and for excellence in flavor.

1585. Frederick Lauer, Reading, Pa., U. S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; excellent in taste and flavor.

1586. Bergner & Engel, Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness, and very good in every other requisite.

1587. E. Anheuser Co.'s Brewing Association, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness; excellent in taste; very good in aroma.

1588. W. J. Lemp, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.
Nearly perfect in brightness, excellent in taste, and very good in flavor.

1589. Valentine Blatz, Milwaukee, Wis., U. S. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; very good in taste and flavor.

1590. H. Clausen & Son, New York, N. Y., U.S. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; very excellent in taste and flavor.

1591. Geo. Ehret, New York, N. Y., U.S. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; excellent in taste and flavor.

1592. S. Liebmann's Sons, Williamsburg, N. Y., U.S. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; excellent in taste and flavor.

1593. Elias & Betz, New York City, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness; very excellent in taste; excellent in flavor.

1594. Mayer & Bachmann, Staten Island, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
The two best samples of all the beer submitted : that marked XII, perfect in brightness, and nearly so in taste and flavor; that marked R, perfect in every requisite of a good lager beer, viz. : in brightness, taste, and flavor.

1595. Joseph Uhrig Brewing Co., St. Louis, Mo., U.S. LAGER BEER.

Perfect in brightness ; excellent in taste and flavor.

1596. Joseph Schlitz Brewing Co., Milwaukee, Wis., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Three different samples : the one marked X, very excellent in brightness, taste, and flavor; the one marked Q, perfect in brightness and taste, and excellent in flavor; the one marked O, perfect in brightness and taste ; very excellent in flavor.

1597. Phillip Best Brewing Co., Milwaukee, Wis., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Two samples of lager beer: one marked XXV, nearly perfect in brightness and taste ; one marked D, perfect in brightness, and very excellent in taste and flavor.

1598. Geo. Bechtel, Stapleton, Staten Island, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; excellent in flavor and taste.

1599. S. Liebmann's Sons, Williamsburg, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Excellent in brightness; very excellent in flavor and taste.

1600. Conrad Stein, New York, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; very excellent in flavor and taste.

1601. Rubsam & Horrmann, Stapleton, Staten Island, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Two samples: one marked XXII, excellent in brightness and flavor, nearly perfect in taste; one marked B, very excellent in brightness, taste, and flavor.

1602. Schmitt & Koehne, New York, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness ; very excellent in taste and flavor.

1603. Jacob Ruppert, New York, N. Y., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness, and nearly so in taste and flavor.

1604. John Roessle, Boston, Mass., U.S. LAGER BEER.
Perfect in brightness, and nearly so in taste and flavor.

1605. Carl Meyerhofer, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., U. S. WEISS BEER.
Commended for the novelty and very good quality of his weiss beer.

1606. Valentine Loewer, New York, N. Y., U. S. WEISS BEER.
Commended for the novelty and good quality of his weiss beer.

1607. Francis Lutoslavsky, Lomza, Russia. BEER.
Very good taste, good condition, and good color.

1608. W. Krause, Warsaw, Russia. BEER.
Radzikovski beer, in fine condition, of mild character and agreeable aroma.

1609. John Doordin, St. Petersburg, Russia. BEER.

A light-colored beer of Bavarian style; well brewed, from Russian barley malt, with Bohemian hops.

1610. H. Herman, Kharkoff, Russia. BEER.

A light, very agreeable, well-brewed beer.

1611. Ivanholm Brewery, Copenhagen, Denmark. EXPORT BEER.

Three years old, and has made three long voyages; perfectly sound, and of very line quality.

1612. Fernando Magdelin, Santa Fe, Argentine Republic. BEER.

Commended for the very good condition, taste, and flavor of his " elephanten beer," and that marked F. M.

1613. E. Bieckert, Buenos Ayres, Argentine Republic. BEER.

Commended for the good quality of several samples of beer submitted, having retained good condition, taste, and flavor.

1614. Camillo Ronzani, Bologna, Italy. BEER.

Good color; very good taste; good condition.

1615. Metzger Brothers, Asti, Italy. BEER AND ALE.

Three kinds of beer, that called pale ale being light in body, but very good, the white beer being excellent, and the beer from corn (maize) very good indeed.

1616. Kaiser Brewery (Beck & Co.), Bremen, Germany. BOTTLED LAGER BEER.

Perfect in brightness ; very good in every other requisite.

1617. Baron von Boutteville, Moering, Germany. BEER.

Commended for excellent style, taste, and condition, proving perfection in brewing.

1618. Pschorr's Brew-House, Munich, Germany. BEER.

Commended for excellent quality and prime condition, and perfect taste.

1619. Peter Overbeck, Dortmund, Germany. BEER.

Commended for good flavor, excellent condition, and perfect brewing.

1620. Henry T. Bottinger, Wurtzburg, Germany. BEER.

Commended for most perfect brewing, and excellent quality, condition, and taste.

1621. Tivoli Brewing Co., Berlin, Germany. BEER.

Commended for fine quality and fragrance, and good brewing and condition.

1622. Justus Hildebrand, Pfungstadt, Germany. BEER.
Commended for very fine quality and high flavor.

1623. Henry Wetz, Speier, Germany. BEER.
The exhibitor showed a beer which, although bottled three years ago, was perfect in body and sweetness, in good condition, and had developed a most striking flavor.

1624. Chr. Sick, Speier, Germany. BEER.
Commended for very fine quality and perfect brewing.

1625. Baron von Thiingen, Weissenbach, Germany. BEER.
Commended for superior quality and fine brewing.

1626. Anton Dreher, Vienna, Austria. BEER.
The beer was found perfectly brewed, fine in color, striking in aroma.

1627. First Pilsen Joint Stock Brewery, Pilsen, Bohemia, Austria. BEER.
Two samples of lager beer : the one named " Pilsner" nearly perfect in brightness and taste, and excellent in flavor; the one named "Export" perfect in brightness, and excellent in taste and flavor. The several samples of bottled lager beer, bock beer, and export submitted were each perfect in brightness and very good in every other essential point.

1628. Moss Brewery, Moss, Norway. BEER.
Commended for clearness, good brewing, and fine aroma of good hops.

1629. E. C. Dohl, Trondhjem, Norway. NORWEGIAN BEER.
A brand of pale ale, of a very agreeable taste, well brewed and mild, indicating good keeping qualities.

1630. Christiania Brewery, Christiania, Norway. BEER.
Commended for strength combined with fine color and a pronounced taste.

1631. P. Ltz. Aass, Drammen, Norway. BEER.
Commended for the following reasons :
1. For a splendid very wine-like brewing, — the very champagne of beer.
2. For good keeping quality.

1632. Kongsberg Brewery, Kongsberg, Norway. BEER.
Commended for brilliancy in color, purity in taste, and general excellence.

1633. Chr. Wriedt, Drammen, Norway. BEER.
Commended for beauty and purity of taste.

1634 O. N. Forseth & Co., Christiania, Norway. BEER.
Commended for purity, strength, and fine aroma, combined with great brightness.

1635. Frydeulund's Brewery, Christiania, Norway BEER.
Commended for beauty in color and taste, and remarkable mildness.

1636. Hamar Brewery, Harnar, Norway. BEER.
Commended for the following reasons :
1st. Clearness, and the peculiar very fine aromatic taste.
2d. Its superior keeping qualities ; a sample in good condition having been brewed in 1871.

1637. Plagemann & Co., Valparaiso, Chili. LAGER BEER.
Keport. — Well brewed; good taste and flavor; in excellent condition.

1638. Wm. Massey & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. AMERICAN STOCK ALE.
Commended for good color, very bright condition, excellent taste, and fine aroma.

1639. Reuter & Alley, Boston, Mass., U. S. PRESENT-USE ALE.
Commended for perfection in every requisite of good ale, viz. : color, brightness, taste, and aroma.

1640. C. H. Evans & Co., Hudson, N. Y., U. S. PRESENT-USE ALE. Commended for perfection in color and brightness, excellence in taste and aroma.

1641. Robert Smith, Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. BOTTLED ALE. The several samples submitted were all three perfect in color and brightness and very good in taste and aroma.

1642. W. A. Miles & Co., New York, N. Y., U. S. BOTTLED ALE.
The two samples submitted were both perfect in color and brightness, excellent in aroma and taste.

1643. Reuter & Alley, Boston, Mass., U. S. BOTTLED ALE.
Perfect in color and brightness, very good in aroma, and excellent in taste.

1644. W. A. Miles & Co., New York, N. Y., U. S. PRESENT-USE ALE.
Perfection in every requisite of good ale, viz: color, brightness, taste, and aroma.

1645. Henry Ferris & Sons, New York, N. Y., U. S. PRESENT-USE ALE.
Commended for perfection in color, brightness, and taste, and excellence in aroma.

1646. S. Bolton & Son's Brewery, Lansingburgh, N. Y., U. S. PRESENT-USE ALE.
Commended for excellence in color, brightness, and taste; very good in aroma.

1647. Beadleston, Price, & Woerz, New York, N. Y., U. S. PRESENT-USE ALE.
Commended for excellence in color, brightness, and taste ; very good in aroma.

1648. Wm. Massey & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. PRESENT-USE ALE.

Commended for perfection in color; excellence in taste and aroma; very good in brightness.

1649. Herbert Wright & Co., Moxton, near Dover, England. ALE.

Commended for the excellent quality of their export pale ale, in every requisite of condition, brightness, and aroma.

1650. Richardson, Earn, & Slater, Newark-upon- Trent, England. ALE.

Commended for their A I ale ; perfect in condition, and excellent in brightness and aroma.

1651. Ind, Coope, & Co., Burton-on-Trent, England. ALE

Commended for the excellent quality of their "India Pale Ale" in every requisite of condition, brightness, taste, and aroma.

1652. Bindley & Co., Burton-on-Trent, England. ALE.

Commended for their mild ale, excellent in brightness, taste, aroma, and condition : and their strong ale is perfect in condition and brightness, and very good in taste and aroma.

1653. J. Muir & Son, Edinburgh, Scotland. ALE

Commended for the excellent quality of their sparkling ale, in every requisite of condition, brightness, and aroma.

1654. John Treacy & Co., Geelong, Victoria, Australia. ALE AND STOUT IN BOTTLES.

The ale is sound and good for a light ale, and the porter of very good quality and well bottled.

1655. Edward Latham, Carlton, Victoria, Australia. ALE AND PORTER.

Several samples of ale, well brewed and in good condition, also of fine aroma. The porter is also of good quality.

1656. P. J. Martin, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia. ALE.

This ale is brewed from Victorian malt and Tasmanian hops; is very fine, exceedingly well brewed, and of delicate flavor.

1657. Henderson & Fanan, Wellington, New Zealand.

ALE AND STOUT.

Several samples, all showing good brewing, fair condition, careful treatment, and variety enough to suit all tastes.

1658. Murree Brewery Co., Punjab, India. ALE.

Commended for the excellent quality of their strong ale and their XXX stout ; remarkable for good condition, brightness, taste, and aroma.

1659. John Labatt, London, Ontario, Canada. ALE AND STOUT.
A variety of ale and stout. The latter, labeled XXX, was first-rate; the India pale ale, well brewed and very good; the ale on draught, well fermented and very good 1660. Thos. Davies & Brother, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. ALE AND PORTER.

A variety of brewings of ale and porter, of which the cream ale on draught was very good; the draught ale, very fair; the draught porter, good; and the cream crystal ale in bottles, fair.

1661. Cosgrove & Co., Toronto, Ontario, Canada. BOTTLED ALE.
Excellent in color and brightness ; very good in aroma and taste.

1662. Jansen & Co., Lisbon, Portugal. ALE AND PORTER.
Light and agreeable good laste ; well kept under the circumstances. Another sample much clearer, and even much better. The porter of good taste and quality generally.

1663. A. B. Wallis, Dybeck, Malmo, Sweden. ALE.
Commended for good condition, having been well brewed, and for fair taste.

1664. A. H. Tulldahl, Landskrona, Sweden. ALE.
The pale ale being very good in condition, and fine in taste and flavor.

1665. Wm. Massey & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. BOTTLED PORTER.
Commended for the excellent quality of bottled porter.

1666. William Massey & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. AMERICAN STOCK PORTER.
Of good color, excellent taste, and fine aroma.

1667. John Gardiner & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., U. S. PORTER.
Commended for excellence in taste, aroma, and brightness.